The local population do not want the developments.

The proposed locations are badly positioned with respect to road traffic, school drop off and collection, and general road safety.

There is no local employment that supports additional housing, therefore will add to further local traffic for people to attend work elsewhere.

The local bus services cannot support local transport needs for people waking outside of the village.

Government policy was changed to allow the local population to decide the desirability of any proposals for wind energy devices in their locality. This survey of the local population on a yes or no acceptance to the specific proposals has not been carried out.

Also the proposals are extremely damaging to the regions environmental and visual heritage I've creating eyesores in an otherwise attractive landscape area.
